

INVIVO PINOT NOIR 2021

Founded by two Kiwi wine entrepreneurs in 2008 (the two mad fellas Tim and Rob!), Invivo is one of New Zealand's leading producers and our mission is to bring people together so great things can happen.

We have a down to earth approach and make products that our mates would drink and talk about it the same way – honest, down to earth and no BS!

We run two local wineries and manage over 400 hectares in leased and grower vineyards in Marlborough, Hawkes Bay, Gisborne, and Central Otago.

Welcome to the second vintage of our new Invivo label, a classy refresh highlighting the Invivo star – four arrows coming together representing our founders and bringing people together so great things can happen!

TASTING NOTE:

Spicy dark cherries and a toasty cinnamon fill the nose initially, followed by inviting layers of plums and white chocolate. The palate is full bodied and dense with sweet, dark red stone fruits lifting from all aspects of the mouthfeel, underpinned by a voluptuous pairing of new French oak. Silky fine tannins give the wine structure, along with perfectly balanced acidity. The 2021 Invivo Pinot Noir is a bold wine that will happily pair with a range of cuisine and reward patience in the cellar for at least 8 years.
